ADULT SUMMER QUEST: June 18 - August 21

Join us on a quest of reading and learning. To win prizes, simply track your reading and complete fun activities. Explore new books and discover new interests along the way!

Summer Quest: What it is...

Like summer reading, but more...

This year our challenges and prizes are based on using ALL the libraries resources.

For instance, check out one of our many Museum Passes and treat yourself to a field trip.

Use one of our many online programs to learn something new...

A language, with Mango Languages

A recipe, with A TO Z World Food

Microsoft Excel, with Universal Class

Check out one of our pre-loaded Kindle Paperwhites or take a T-Mobile Hotspot on vacation with you.

Yes, Wireless in the Woods.

It all counts towards your eligibility for our weekly prize drawings. Sign up today!

Join us on Thursday, August 30, at 7 p.m. for an end of summer party where we will raffle off the grand prize!

COLLEGE ESSAY WORKSHOPS

For Teens – Mon Aug 6, 6:30-8 pm

For Parents – Tues Aug 7, 6:30-8 pm

Get started on your college application essay with expert advice from writing coach Linda George. Discover tips for writing a resume and learn pointers for creating concise, original, and insightful essays that impress admission counselors.

NOTE: These workshops are offered to teens and parents separately. The teens' workshop will focus on boosting college application essay writing skills and preparing a resume. The parents' workshop will provide tools to help their prospective college students with the application process. Register at the Information Desk, 215-885-5180 x113, email lcummings@mclinc.org, or online by clicking on the date you wish to attend.
